

Garret Brown Lands Circle of Excellence

Powered By: TAP Innovations

Have you ever had a deal come across the table that could be a game-changer, pushing you towards your goals if you can close it? The question is, how do you make it happen without a solution?

Garrett Brown, a Paychex Sr. Enterprise Consultant, faced a significant challenge with his client, Peerless Products Inc., a multi-location company based in Kentucky. They wanted to move from Paycor to Paychex Flex®, but were overwhelmed by the need to migrate over 38,000 documents and extensive employee data.

Recognizing the potential setback, Garrett partnered with TAP Innovations. TAP's expertise in data migration turned a daunting task into a seamless process, efficiently transferring wage histories, tax records, liability forms, and benefits data.

This strategic collaboration not only secured the deal but also ensured a smooth transition for Peerless Products Inc. to Paychex Flex®. TAP Innovations' meticulous handling of the data migration eliminated potential errors and delays, making the client's transition stress-free and successful. Peerless Products Inc. was able to quickly adapt to their new HCM system without any disruptions, enhancing their overall operational efficiency.

As a result, Garrett not only closed the deal but also earned significant recognition, including a prestigious spot at the conference and induction into The Circle of Excellence.

Need a document or data migration solution? Think TAP Innovations—the efficiency experts transforming challenges into triumphs.
