

PARTNERSHIP OVERVIEW

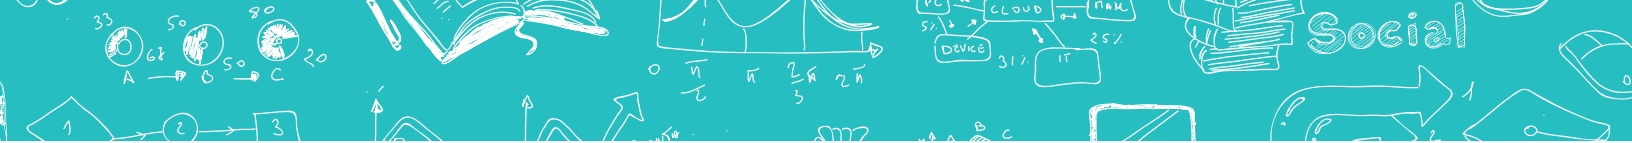

PARTNERS IN STAFFING, ROBOTIC PROCESS
AUTOMATION (RPA) AND HISTORICAL DOCUMENT
CONVERSION

Strategic partnerships bring unique offerings to the market with trusted and reliable solutions. Allruva Technology Services, Inc. is an industry leader in digital transformation through staffing and technology innovation. Solutions solve automation gaps in transferring historical data between technology systems through Robotic Process Automation (RPA), and customers achieve ROI thanks to improvement in their operational and business efficiencies.

Solve Your Technology and Business Challenges:

- System integration
- New technology system or application launch
- Inability to transfer historical data like employee, time and labor, without manual file uploads
- Data conversions
- Manual efforts, processes and reliance on spreadsheets
- Unexpected budget increases or delays in system implementations
- Open and unfilled technology staffing positions

Making a Difference Today

Allruva Technology Services, Inc. offers expertise with Robotic Process Automation (RPA) technologies for historical document conversions. This sophisticated technology saves customers significant time and resources in managing data between business systems.

- Document retrieval and uploading automation of 12,500 documents between two core business systems for United Building Maintenance
- 14,000 employee profile documents are automatically loaded into Paycor quickly and affordably for Spinal Elements
- Document transfer management and automation of 100,000 records for a national restaurant franchise
- Ability to find high quality and affordable resources immediately

Allruva's has an amazing ability to find any resource, any skill set anywhere around the world in a few days at affordable rates. Their staffing model can scale multiple teams efficiently. This is critical for starting projects quickly with quality and delivering affordably.

Dependable tools and complementary solutions allow enterprise access to information quickly and effectively. Sophisticated tools and support services are customized and reliable for each business customer.

Through this strategic partnership, TAP Innovations is able to connect customers with tools and solutions that infuse process automation into their daily tasks or large data transfer projects.
