Overview

A direct care service provider to the elder community and those with disabilities provides in-home care, residential services and self-directed supports. Administrators and supervisors lack an enterprise application to track and manage attendance records across employees and locations. TAP Innovations is a premier system integrator developed an affordable and scalable application to manage employee attendance, plus global reporting and analytics for enterprise access to data!

Business Challenge/Problem

Employee attendance tracking for points and deductions is limited, manual and time-consuming for company supervisors. This company chose TAP Innovations to accelerate their HR software vendor launch quickly and affordably while solving their attendance data access and management challenges. A custom TAP Innovations application provides the ability to track and maintain any attendance related issues and points through system integration. Global reporting and analytics gives insight into employees by location, employment category and more!
